

Marvin Strait Named to be CACI Board Chair-Elect; Five New CACI Board Members Elected

October 28--Marvin Strait, a Colorado Springs CPA who serves as CACI Treasurer, yesterday was named Chair-Elect by the CACI Board. Rob LeVine, General Manager of The Antlers at Vail and the 2010-2011 CACI Board Chair, was elected to be Past Chair.

The following were elected yesterday at CACI's Annual Membership Business Meeting as new Board Members for three-year term:

- Jandel Allen-Davis, Vice President, External and Government Relations, Kaiser Permanente
- Jeff Dolan, Vice President of Regulatory and Governmental Affairs, Comcast Mile High Region
- Fred Menzer, Vice President, Colorado Operations and Administration, Climax Molybdenum Company, a Freeport-McMoRan Company
- James N. Peterson, Vice President, Marketing and Corporate Relations, The Ball Corporation
- Robert S. Schlue, Director, Missions Operations Colorado, The Boeing Company

The following Board members were re-elected to another three-year term:

- Melanie Braidich, Regional President, Verizon Wireless
- Robert E. Brown, President, Harsh International, Inc.
- David Dean, Chairman & CEO, Miller International
- Anthony DeNovellis, President and CEO, AAA Colorado
- John McCormick, Director, Legislative Affairs, CenturyLink
- Travis Webb, Managing Partner, BKD CPAs and Advisors, LLP

In addition, the following were elected to one-year terms on the CACI Board:

- Ray Johnson, Manager, Community Relations and Public Affairs, IBM, serving as the Chair of the CACI Educational Foundation; and
- Steve Dyer, President, Highlands Ranch Chamber of Commerce, representing the Colorado Chamber of Commerce Executives, a CACI affiliate.